

FURTHERING WORK OF MERCY . . . Torrance's beautiful new Little Company of Mary Hospital will be dedicated Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre. The hospital will be open to the public until 5 p.m. Again on Sunday, open house will be held from 2 until 5 p.m. giving all residents an opportunity to see the modern, well-equipped structure. Members of the Little Company of Mary Auxiliary will be on hand both days as will members of the Junior Auxiliary. Wearing their volunteer pinafore

CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES . . . On sale at booths in front of various department stores and markets in Torrance are decorated Christmas stockings, mail bags, bottle covers and door ringers offered by the Torrance Chapter of the City of Hope. Displaying their items are, seated, Mmes. Sol Young and Bert Lynn; standing, Mmes. Walter West and Robert Triplitt. All proceeds from these sales will go to the City of Hope for research in combatting cancer.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"YOU SOUND LIKE A REAL DOLL"

Dear Ann Landers: You must be some kind of a nut or something. That column of yours where you said it wasn't necessary for kids to play with toy guns really got me mad.

Guns are a part of our American heritage. The right to bear arms is part of the American way of life. I always had a toy pistol and a toy rifle when I was growing up. It helped me to be a good shot when I got old enough to go hunting. I've hunted every year for the past six and never had an accident. I think you are wacky.

Why didn't you stay in Russia?—Y. C.

Dear Y. C.: Thanks for the sweet note. You sound like a real doll. I didn't stay in Russia because I prefer the United States.

Hunting is a fine sport for those who like it. I don't. I'm glad you're a good shot and I'm happy you haven't had an accident. Sometimes the OTHER fellow's accident is the one that puts you in the hospital—or six feet under. Keep wearing red in the woods, Buster—and lots of luck.

Dear Ann Landers: My sister-in-law comes from Boston, which probably accounts for her snooty ideas. She's so "formal" it makes me tired.

We live about five blocks apart. I've been raised to be a down-to-earth person. In my opinion, there's nothing wrong with opening the front door of a relative or close friend and shouting "yoo-hoo, Liz is here."

I've done this all my life and no one ever complained. This morning my sister-in-law told me she thinks it's rude to walk into a home no matter how well you know the people.

I've never criticized anyone for walking into my home and I feel insulted that she should take this high-tone attitude. What do you say?—PUT OUT.

Dear Put: Boston isn't the only city in the world that has door-knockers and bells and there's nothing snooty

Sandy Cressey-Ron Baker Set Jan. 30 For Wedding

Wedding bells will ring Jan. 30, 1960 for Miss Sandy Cressey and Ron Baker. The wedding will take place at the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter is being announced this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Cressey, 2144 W. 253rd Place, Lomita.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Doris Baker of Lomita and the late Lt. (j.g.) Ralph E. Baker.

The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1956 where she was active in student government and service organizations. Miss Cressey also attended Harbor College where she was affiliated with Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, holding several offices.

Mr. Baker attended Narbonne High and is now in the building construction business.

Miss Cressey is employed as a personnel assistant at Ryan

Aeronautical Co. in Torrance. Following the wedding reception to be held at the church hall, the couple will honeymoon in northern California.

Jacksons Return

Being greeted by their many friends are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jackson who have moved back to Torrance after more than two years in Decatur, Ill. Mr. Jackson was transferred back to Torrance by the Standard Steel Co. The Jacksons, who had lived in Torrance for 16 years prior to going to Illinois, are now occupying their own home at 5404 Reese Rd.

Yule Moon Dance Set By Vecinas

"Dancing on the Moon" is the theme the Las Vecinas Woman's club has selected for its Yule Dance.

This annual social event for members and their guests will include dinner and dancing to Les Tronier and his orchestra on Friday, Dec. 11, at the newly decorated Palos Verdes Country Club.

Mrs. Maurice Wilson, general chairman, reports that Las Vecinas will really take off into outer space this year as all the decorations will carry out the theme of Christmas on the Moon. Working with her are Mmes. Don Hazelton, decorations; Donald Pennington, reservations, and Ralph Weyant, invitations.

On the decorating committee are Mmes. Richard Greenlaw, Robert Harlin, Quinton Johnson, Marvin Kaufman, Curt Martins, Walter Moss, Donald Pennington, Glenn Singer, A. C. Werdes and Ralph Weyant.

Bridge Party

Poinsettias and evergreens decorated the mantle and formed centerpieces on the tables last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Parke Montague entertained at a bridge luncheon.

Holding high scores in the bridge games, following the luncheon were Mrs. Burton Easley, Mrs. Phillip Halloran, and Mrs. R. J. Triplitt.

Other guests were Mmes. Gerald Eastham, Walter Levy, Henry Backlund, W. E. Grubbs and Cam Blakely.

On Dec. 16, Mrs. Walter Levy and Mrs. Phillip Halloran will entertain the club at its annual Christmas luncheon and party. The affair will be held at the Levy home in Palos Verdes.

Club Hostess

Mrs. M. A. Bauman entertained her club at a bridge luncheon last Thursday at her home, 3916 Palos Verdes Dr. N. In the bridge games following the luncheon prizes were won by Mrs. Delbert Thomsen, Mrs. Dean Sears and Mrs. Paul Weir.

On Dec. 21 the club will have its Christmas dinner party at the Palms restaurant. There will be a gift exchange.

Attending Thursday's party were Mmes. W. C. Boswell, Paul Loranger, E. C. Cook, Mei Millar, Thomsen, Sears and Weir.

Sunday Guests

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull, 1730 Hickory Ave. had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGrath of Canoga Park.

Tuck-Helton Names Linked In Marriage

Miss Lucielle Marie Tuck was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of the First Baptist Church on Saturday evening, Nov. 21, at 8 o'clock to become the bride of Chuck Helton. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Tuck, 1423 W. 220th St. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Helton of Downey are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Tuck escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white star lace over tiers of ruffled net and taffeta. Her illusion veil fell from a flat headpiece of pearls. Her bouquet was of white feathered chrysanthemums encircling three white orchids.

Miss Penny Butler was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Sue Chapman, Pat Wilson, Mrs. Barbara Shipley and Mrs. Rose A. A. bright. They were all gowned in coral chiffon and wore coral chiffon picture hats. Their bouquets were of Talisman roses and white carnations.

Miss Lois Tuck was her sister's flower girl. She wore coral chiffon and carried a white basket filled with peach colored rose petals.

Phil Goeschi was best man and ushers were Jim Reel, Don Bourne, Arthur Tuck and Ken Vernon.

Mrs. Pat Ouwendyk, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Mike Powers who sang "Through the Years" and The Wedding Prayer.

Rev. Morgan Gates, pastor, officiated at the marriage. The 300 guests were entertained at a reception in the church Fellowship hall.

The newlyweds then went to San Simeon on a honeymoon. Their new address is 18322 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school and her husband is a Compton High graduate.
